

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

Alicia Little

Plaintiff,

v.

Stellar Recovery Incorporated

Defendant.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES
UNDER THE FAIR DEBT
COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT,
THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT, THE MICHIGAN OCCUPATIONAL CODE AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

JURY DEMAND ENDORSED HEREIN

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff, Alicia Little (“Alicia”), is a natural person who resided in Flint, Michigan, at all times relevant to this action.
2. Defendant, Stellar Recovery Incorporated (“Stellar”), is a Florida corporation that maintained its principal place of business in Jacksonville, Florida, at all times relevant to this action.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, this Court has federal question jurisdiction over this matter as it arises under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

(“FDCPA”), 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), 47 U.S.C. § 227.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367(a), this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s claims under the Michigan Occupational Code (“MOC”), Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.901, et seq., because those claims share a common nucleus of operative facts with Plaintiff’s claims under the FDCPA. See Litt v. Midland Credit Management, Inc., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 66658 (E.D. Mich. May 15, 2014)(in FDCPA case, supplemental jurisdiction exercised over claims under MOC).
5. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), venue is proper because a substantial part of the events giving rise to this claim occurred in this judicial district.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

6. Before Stellar began contacting Alicia, it and Alicia had no prior business relationship and Alicia had never provided express consent to Stellar to be contacted on her cellular telephone.
7. Stellar regularly uses instrumentalities of interstate commerce and the mails to collect consumer debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another.
8. The principal source of Stellar’s revenue is debt collection.
9. Stellar is a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

10. As described, infra, Stellar contacted Alicia to collect a debt that was incurred primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
11. This alleged obligation is a “debt” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).
12. Alicia is a “consumer” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).
13. Within the past twelve months, and before, Stellar has been calling Alicia on Alicia’s cellular phone in connection with the collection of a debt.
14. Shortly after the calls began, Alicia advised Stellar that Alicia didn’t owe the debt.
15. In addition, Alicia communicated Alicia’s desire that Stellar cease calling Alicia.
16. Despite this communication, Stellar continued to call Alicia on Alicia’s cellular phone.
17. Thereafter, on several occasions, including within the past twelve months, Alicia advised Stellar that Alicia didn’t owe the debt and communicated Alicia’s desire that Stellar cease calling Alicia.
18. Despite these communications, Stellar continued to call Alicia on Alicia’s cellular phone.
19. Stellar caused Alicia emotional distress.

COUNT ONE

Violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

20. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 13 through 19 above as if fully set forth herein.
21. Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692d by engaging in conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse Plaintiff in connection with the collection of the debt.

COUNT TWO

Violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

22. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 13 through 19 above as if fully set forth herein.
23. Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692e by using false, deceptive, or misleading representations or means in connection with the collection of the debt.

COUNT THREE

Violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

24. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 13 through 19 above as if fully set forth herein.
25. Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692f by using unfair or unconscionable means to collect the debt.

COUNT FOUR

Violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act

26. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 13 through 19 above as if fully set forth herein.

27. Senator Fritz Hollings, the original sponsor of the TCPA, stated:

Computerized calls are the scourge of modern civilization. They wake us up in the morning; they interrupt our dinner at night; they force the sick and elderly out of bed; they hound us until we want to rip the telephone right out of the wall.

137 Cong. Rec. 30,821 (1991).

28. The TCPA provides, in part:

(b) RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF AUTOMATED TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT.—

(1) PROHIBITIONS.—It shall be unlawful for any person within the United States, or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States—

(A) to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using any automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice—

* * *

(iii) to any telephone number assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service, specialized mobile radio service, or other radio common carrier service, or any service for which the called party is charged for the call...

47 U.S.C. §§ 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

29. Defendant used a predictive dialer system to call Plaintiff on her cellular phone.
30. “[A] predictive dialer is equipment that dials numbers and, when certain computer software is attached, also assists telemarketers in predicting when a sales agent will be available to take calls. The hardware, when paired with certain software, has the capacity to store or produce numbers and dial those numbers at random, in sequential order, or from a database of numbers.” In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 18 F.C.C. Rcd. 14014, 14091-4093 (2003); see also In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 23 F.C.C. Rcd. 559, 562-63 (2008).
31. A predictive dialer system is an automated telephone dialing system (“ATDS”) within the meaning of the TCPA. In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, Declaratory Ruling and Order, adopted June 18, 2015, p. 13, ¶ 13; see also In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 18 F.C.C. Rcd. 14014, 14091-4093 (2003); In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 23 F.C.C. Rcd. 559, 562-63 (2008).

32. The term “called party,” as used in Section 227(b)(1)(A) of the TCPA, refers to the subscriber or the regular user of the called number at the time the telephone call is made. See In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, Declaratory Ruling and Order, adopted June 18, 2015, pp 40-41, ¶¶ 72-73.
33. Plaintiff was the “called party” in each telephone call Defendant placed to a Plaintiff’s cellular telephone.
34. Defendant violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A) on multiple and separate occasions by each time using an ATDS and/or an artificial or prerecorded voice to call Plaintiff on her cellular telephone without Plaintiff’s prior express consent or after such consent had been revoked.
35. In addition, The TCPA provides, in part:
- If the court finds that the defendant willfully or knowingly violated this subsection or the regulations prescribed under this subsection, the court may, in its discretion, increase the amount of the award to an amount equal to not more than 3 times the amount available under subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.
- 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).
36. The Communications Act of 1943, of which the TCPA is a part, defines “willful” as “the conscious or deliberate commission or omission of such act, irrespective of any intent to violate any provision[], rule or regulation....” 47 U.S.C. § 312(f).

37. In order to establish a “willful” or “knowing” violation of the TCPA, a plaintiff need not demonstrate that the defendant intended to violate the statute, or that it knew or should have known it was violating the statute. See Roylance v. ALG Real Est. Servs., Inc. 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 44930, *31 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 16, 2015); Bridgeview Health Care Ctr. Ltd. v. Clark, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 37310, *21-22 (N.D. Ill. Mar. 19, 2013); Steward v. Regent Asset Mgmt. Solutions, Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 50046, *18-20 (N.D. Ga. 2011).
38. Instead, a plaintiff need only show that the defendant engaged in a “voluntary act” that violated the TCPA. See Bridgeview, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS, at *21-22; see also Roylance, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS, at *31 (intentionally making phone calls that violated TCPA, without intent to violate the statute, was sufficient to warrant treble damages).
39. Defendant voluntarily placed telephone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular telephone number using an ATDS and/or an artificial or prerecorded voice.
40. Defendant’s violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A) were willfully and knowingly made.

COUNT FIVE

Violations of the Michigan Occupational Code

41. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 13 through 19 above as if fully set forth herein.
42. Defendant is a “collection agency” as that term is defined in the MOC, Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.901(b).
43. Plaintiff is a “consumer” as defined by the MOC and is a person whom the act was intended to protect, Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.901(f).
44. Defendant attempted to collect a “debt” within the meaning of Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.901(a).
45. Defendant willingly and knowingly violated Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.915(e) by making inaccurate, misleading, untrue, or deceptive statements and claims in communications to collect a debt.
46. Defendant willingly and knowingly violated Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.915(n) by using harassing, oppressive, or abusive methods to collect a debt.
47. Defendant willingly and knowingly violated Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.915(q) by failing to implement a procedure designed to prevent a violation by an employee.

48. Defendant's willful violations of the MOC entitle Plaintiff to a civil penalty of not less than three (3) times the actual damages he sustained as a result of Defendant's violations of the MOC.

JURY DEMAND

49. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

50. Plaintiff prays for the following relief:
- a. Judgment against Defendant for actual damages, statutory damages, and costs and reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k.
  - b. An order enjoining Defendant from placing further telephone calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone number pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).
  - c. Judgment against Defendant for statutory damages pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3) for each and every call Defendant made in violation of the TCPA.
  - d. Judgment against Defendant for actual damages, statutory damages, costs and reasonable attorney's fees, plus a civil penalty of not less than three (3) times Plaintiff's actual damages, pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws § 339.916.

e. For such other legal and/or equitable relief as the Court deems appropriate.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

Date: November 30, 2015
